TO ALL OROVILLE RESIDENTS

In these tough times, with the economy in such bad shape, everyone would agree that we need to be careful how we spend our money, we all need to make every dollar count.

Shouldn't it also be true that we need to keep our money local, right here in this town where it will benefit us and not some outsider?

Oroville has several choices where to purchase new power equipment, or get equipment serviced, but do you know which shop is actually locally owned?

Reader Advisory: In order to avoid misunderstandings, some advertisers do not offer "employment" but rather supply the readers with manuals, directories and other materials designed to help their clients establish mail order selling and other businesses at home. Under NO circumstance should you send any money in advance or give the client your checking, license ID, or credit card numbers. Also beware of ads that claim to guarantee loans regardless of credit and note that if a credit repair company does business only over the phone it's illegal to request any money before delivering its service. All funds are based in US dollars. 800 numbers may or may not reach Canada.

Sweet Dreams, a Tribute to Patsy Cline

The public went "Crazy" at the premier performance of "Sweet Dreams, a Tribute to Patsy Cline" at the Monday Club in March. Due to the overwhelming response, three more shows: Two dinner shows one on Saturday, April 13th at 6:30 p. and one Sunday, April 14th at 5:30 p.m. There is also a Sunday Matinee at 2 p.m. on the 14th.

The new group has a four piece band; Dwain Whitmire, Brett Johnson, Glen Dotson, the famous Jimmy D and vocalist, Jolan Dobis. Jolan delivers Patsy's songs with a pure heart and sensational vocals coupled with a magnificent stage presence and entertainment style.

Lowell Weatherford of Red Eagle Productions will again join 'Sweet Dreams' for the two dinner shows. Lowell, like Jolan and Sweet Dreams is an entertainers entertainer with style and grace. He bring a 'Touch of Country' paying tribute to musicians like Merle Haggard and Marty Robbins.

Your boots might be made for walking, but many of you find yourselves up and dancing to the magic of the Sweet Dreams shows. Don't be afraid to dress a touch of country.

"Don't Fall to Pieces" if you don't drive at night! Come to the Sunday Matinee at 2 p.m. on Sunday, April 14th. Refreshments and drinks (coffee, soda, tea and water) to be severed for only $10.00 at person.

The dinner shows are $15.00 a person and each table seats eight. Saturday, April 13th at 6:30 p.m., serving breaded chicken breasts, vegetables, potatoes, salad, rolls/bread, desert and drinks. The Sunday dinner show starts at 5:30 p.m. and in place of breaded chicken breasts will be barbecued chicken. Each table seats 8 and pre-paid reservations are required. The Monday Club is located at 2385 Montgomery Street, Oroville, Ca. Visit the Monday Club of Oroville Facebook.

The Saturday Dinner Show is a fundraiser for the Monday Club, and the two shows on Sunday, the two o'clock matinee and the dinner show are fundraisers for "I Wish," a fantasy/musical that teaches healthy habits.

Some of the "I Wish" cast members will be at both shows on Sunday.

Visit our ticket outlets: Betty Jeans at 1920 Bird Street, or Houser's Music at 1944 Bird Street, Oroville. Pink Eye & Friends Return in "I Wish"

Pink Eye and her germ friends are invading Oroville again as the fantasy/musical, "I Wish" returns in May to the Historic State Theatre for its fourth annual production. This modern day Wizard of Oz actually teaches and promotes healthy habits to combat preventable illness through song and dance. Each year school children are bused to see "I Wish." It is presented under the auspices of the Birdcage Theatre. There is one open to public performance on Saturday May 18th at 2 p.m.

This delightful family musical is filled with zany characters - Runny Nose, Coughing Mouth, Pink Eye, the Blue Green Puss Children, the malevolent Head Germ to name a few. The story is about a young girl, Margo, makes a wish that her carousel horse, Midnight would come to life. And he does, played by a live miniature horse, Little Bit. In the process she is transplanted to the Land of the Dream Keeper where she makes new friends who join forces to defeat the "bad" germs.

All of the production costs, including the cost of busing are raised by the "I Wish" Team by donations, sponsorships, advertising in the program and other fundraising. Included in this fundraising are two shows by the new and dynamic group: Sweet Dreams who present a "Tribute to Patsy Cline" at the Historic Monday Club on April 14th include a matinee and a dinner show. Louis here....

Louis here. . . Wow a lot has been going on this month! First off the Tennis Tournament. My buddy Darwin and his family arrived and we had a lot of fun. Running in the yard, playing with toys, etc. However, I am not always a good host. That is to say, when Darwin got up on the couch in my spot, I was not a happy camper. I should share, but that is my SPOT! So Mom picked me up and let me sit on her side of the couch. Much better. One day they left both of us at home alone. That was OK because we get along. He knows how to use my door to go in and out so we were able to play and then snooze. While he was on the couch in my spot, I could sleep on Dad's chair, 'cause he was not there! But, his folks came home early and took him out to dinner with them. I was left all alone. Not happy about that. When Mom and Dad came home, I let them know just how unhappy I was. I wouldn't greet them at the door, I just sat on the couch and stared at them. When they came over to pet me, I just put my head down and wouldn't even look at them. When Dad asked for a kiss, I turned my head and looked at him, then buried my head behind the pillow! I was mad! Darwin left and I was all alone. They could have taken me too! Anyway I didn't talk to them all night! Mom had to carry me to my room to go to bed, because I wouldn't even get up off the couch.

The next morning, I was good to go again. Can't stay mad too long or they might not feed me or something. Anyway after 5 days Darwin and his family left. Next to arrive was Dave and Pat. I like them because they know my name and pet me. In the morning I go out to greet Dave as he sits in the sun reading. I like that. His car smells like a dog too. Never met the dog, but hear her name is Bella. She must be big, as her smells are all the way up the side of the car. In the morning I run out to their car and circle it following the Bella Smells!

Another week of staying home alone. Mom and Dad work many hours for the tournament. But finally it's over! They will be back home with me and take me for my evening runs on the golf course.

Wow, Paulette and Mark next door have company. Their daughter and her boyfriend arrived with two dogs in tow! They are Boston terrors, I mean terriers, Rukus and Lucy. Lucy is a very aggressive female! Rukus is much nicer than she is. He and I can run and play together, when he is not trying to hump me. But when Lucy gets into the mix, she tries to cut me off from Rukus and we end up growling at each other.

Boy is she an Alpha dog! When we run on the golf course, Ruk and I run together. If she comes, it is a mess! Three of any kind don't mix, especially when the third is an aggressive female! Rukus loves to swim, but not Lucy so much. They took me swimming one day in their pool. Had to have my life jacket on or I would sink like a brick. But I am not as fond of water as you might think. I like to drink it, sit on the wet grass at night to cool down, but swim in it? Not so much!

Anyway at the end of the day, the three of us are really tired. I go to the fence during the day and watch them play. If my mom goes over there, then I just whine, because I want to go!. They let Rukus come over to my yard and play 'cause we two get along well, but not with Lucy, she just watches us and whines now and then, but I don't think she cares to come over much. I am glad she doesn't!

They are here for another week, but we are taking a road trip up north so I will not see them next week. I am going to visit my cousin Jax! I will let you know how that goes, next time!
