Reader Advisory: In order to avoid misunderstandings, some advertisers do not offer "employment" but rather supply the readers with manuals, directories and other materials designed to help their clients establish mail order selling and other businesses at home. Under NO circumstance should you send any money in advance or give the client your checking, license ID, or credit card numbers. Also beware of ads that claim to guarantee loans regardless of credit and note that if a credit repair company does business only over the phone it's illegal to request any money before delivering its service. ## Basic Safety Tips for Rafters

Over the last five years (2008-2012), State Park's Division of Boating and Waterways has received reports of 55 boating fatalities involving canoes, kayaks, rafts and rowboats. This represents 22 percent of the total boating fatalities during those years.

at least one passenger understands how to use safety equipment such as a throw bag (a safety rope inside a nylon bag), first aid kit, sunscreen and emergency sound devices. This person should be sober and be on the lookout for any dangers.

Below are some tips that rafters should follow to improve their chances of survival:

Properly Loading Boats. Do not overload your boat and keep weight evenly distributed throughout the boat. Keeping a low center of gravity inside the boat can aid in you losing your

Avoid Alcohol. Using alcohol or drugs can make your judgment poor and slow your response time, and reduce your ability to respond to a dangerous incident. Drunken passengers can also lead to an unstable boat and are more likely to cause a capsizing or fall overboard.

balance and falling overboard or capsizing the vessel.

Wear your life jacket. It is important for not only you to wear a life jacket, but for everyone on board the raft to wear one too. If you fall overboard, you will not be able to reach your life jacket and if someone does throw you one, putting one on in swift, deep water is next to impossible. There are many new styles that do not interfere with tan lines or rafting activities.

Stay in your boat. Getting off the boat to swim alongside is tempting, but can be very dangerous. The current may look slow, but can be deceptively strong. Your vessel can easily drift so far from you that you cannot swim to it. The water is much colder than the air, which can lead to cramps when swimming.

Natural Stressors. Beware of stressors in the river environment. There are many natural stressors that make boating unsafe. They can include boat motion, loud noises, and the heat and glare of the sun. Drugs and alcohol also affect your judgment, health and safety. So drink water, eat energy foods, get a lot of rest and take many breaks.

Falling Overboard. If you do fall overboard hold onto the raft and float with it to the nearest landing. If you are not able to hold on, float downstream feet first to the nearest landing. This will enable you to fend off obstacles and prevent your feet from being wedged between rocks, which can trap you underneath the water. Never attempt to stand up in rapidly moving water unless it is too shallow for swimming.

Orange Tree Senior Housing Soil Remediation Removal

On February 8, 2013, the City of Oroville installed a construction fence around property located at 1511 Robinson Street which is the future site of Petaluma Ecumenical Properties (PEP Housing) Orange Tree Senior Housing Apartment project. The fencing was installed as a precautionary measure to provide security around the property and allow for additional analytical soil testing for suspected pesticides that may be in the soil. PEP Housing is the owner of the property and the developer of the proposed senior housing project on Robinson Street.

The City has worked with Brown and Caldwell a certified USEPA consultant group, who along with several other companies conducted the appropriate soil testing for the City of Oroville, Butte County Environmental Health, PEP Housing and Department of Toxic Substances Control. The testing of soil has been completed and over the next few weeks soil that has been determined to be negatively impacted will be removed, followed by importing of appropriate soil and grading for the senior housing project.

The previous structures on the property trace back to around 1915 when it was operated as the Oroville Curran Hospital, Oroville's first hospital, which closed in the late 1960's when it was unable to compete with the newly opened Oroville Hospital. The property had been vacant since 2005 when the City of Oroville acquired it from the Vega Institute which had owned it since 1982 operating it as a residential holistic health center. The buildings were demolished in 2012 as a condition of the sale to Petaluma Ecumenical Properties.

Questions about the soil removal may be directed to Don Rust, Director of Planning and Development, City of Oroville at (530) 538-2433.

Impressions of Dubai, Part 2

by Dianne Wilkinson

The Famous Malls. There are 28 metro stops on the red line (the other being the green line which would bring the total to over 45), and many of them are at malls. Dubai is a city of huge, up-scale, sparkling malls that collectively would take weeks - perhaps months - to fect sense in this city of excess! After all, Dubai is a city of great wealth and extravagance, yet despite this, the costs of groceries, dining out, and taxi services were extremely reasonable. Dubai is a city of the "biggest, tallest, newest, best," to rival Shanghai.

Religion. There are over 500 mosques in Dubai, and we occasionally heard the call to prayer, especially in the malls. The Dubai explore. Our favorite was the Dubai Mall, the largest in the world, based on total area. It is connected to the Burj Khalifa, the tallest building in the world (more about this later). The way things are laid out, the enclosed, air-conditioned

Arab father and child at Ski Dubai, the world's only indoor ski slope, at Mall of the Emirates walkway from the metro station to the mall is longer than the Burj Khalifa is tall. Even with moving sidewalks, it is still a long walk!

Barbara, David, and I ate lunch at a Lebanese restaurant in the mall, viewed the largest indoor aquarium in the world, and then Barbara and I explored an abaya shop. Abayas are the black outer garment that many Muslim women wear. This store had abayas with jewels and embroidery on them; one in particular was 6,000 AED, or about $1,600. Barbara, who had lived in Saudi Arabia for two years, noted that such fancy abayas would not be allowed there. On the way out of the mall, we stopped at a small shop where I had my name painted on a sign. The artist used well-known Dubai buildings, animals, and plants to make the letters. It is a lovely and personal reminder of a great trip.

Another well-known mall is Mall of the Emirates, abbreviated M.O.E., or "More of Everything." This is the mall that has the famous indoor ski slope called "Ski Dubai." Not only is it for skiing, but it is also a snow-filled play area for families. It sounds almost unreal, but once one sees it, it makes per-

Mall and Ibn Batutta Mall had prayer rooms. (Ibn Batutta was an explorer, the Arab equivalent of Marco Polo.)

We were happy to learn that there are churches in Dubai and Abu Dhabi. As Christians, David and I visited Holy Trinity Anglican and St. Mary's Catholic churches. Both churches are within walled compounds and although it is illegal to display crosses on buildings (presumably to prevent them from being seen from the outside), crosses are freely displayed within the compounds. The current sheik's father donated the bells to the chapel of St. Mary's Catholic Church in 1966.

Holy Trinity allows several other Christian denominations to use their parish hall for worship services, and some churches use hotels or private homes for services. While David and I were at St. Mary's, we observed two weddings taking place, one was Filipino, and the other was Indian, with the women dressed in beautiful saris. The idea of Indian Catholics getting married in a Christian church in a Muslim country made us smile at the extraordinariness of the situation, and gives an idea of how cosmopolitan Dubai is.

As you can see in the pictures the living room, dining room and kitchen need finishing. The bedrooms are pretty well done: just little finish work Two of the bedrooms are 9' x 15, one is 8' x 13.' The smaller bathroom (w/shower) has entry from either of the larger bedrooms. Leaving refrigerator, stove, washer and dryer.

My locations is super quiet, located where no car light ever hit this home. Neighbors are great. Very well maintained park. You will love this park! Super quiet. Park has pool, recreation room and pool hall. Located on Fifth Avenue, right off of Oro Dam Blvd. Minutes from downtown. Close to Wal Mart. Close to hospital. CIRCULATION AUDIT BY

Spotlight

by Carol A. Kitchen

Oroville, our City of Gold, has a valuable land mine that we often overlook, or take for granted—our local library located at 1820 Mitchell Ave.

The Partner and Learners (PAL) program is part of the Butte County Literacy program. It is a program that pairs a volunteer tutor with a child, one on one, once or twice a week at the library. The child is tutored on reading and any other areas in which they need support, including math, science or general homework. This is for children K-6th grade.

The PAL program, like the adult literacy programs is 'learner driven.' The child's needs drive the individual sessions. Orientation and training classes are provided for the tutors at the library. If you have a child, or an adult in need of some help with acquiring, or improving critical life skills, or would like to inquire about becoming a tutor, call the Oroville Library at (530) 538-7198.

Programs like the PAL program offer an opportunity to help light a candle that could lead another out of a world of limited opportunities into a world of possibilities.

Ah, possibilities ... Do you have kids looking for something to do year round? Consider tumbling or gymnastics. Individual achievement is stressed by these activities. Mention The Digger and get a free class. Contact the Feather River Parks and Recreation for more information at (530) 533-1043.

Perhaps you have a party or event coming up and would like to add something different. Call Clair Pass of Critter Pass Refuge and Sanctuary. They care for over one hundred "throw away" animals, including mice, rats, chickens, lizards, horses and donkeys. They will bring some of the animals to help educate about animal care and how to help prevent animal abuse. Any donations will help in the care of feeding of the animals they care for. Look them up on the internet, or call Clair Pass at (530) 534-6450.

August is a berry busy month. Yep, berry! The Berry Creek Berry Festival is back for the fifteenth year on Saturday, August 10th from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Just come to Berry Creek and follow the signs! Last year over six hundred blackberry pies were sold! Yummy!

Smoky Bear will also be there along with live music, exhibitions, kids and family activities. Its free! Its fun, and oh, love those berries! Be sure and bring your camera.

Camera? Yes. Digital Photography is increasingly gaining popularity as a hobby with life-long benefits. Tony Paul teaches the use of location and lighting and some basic techniques to enhance your efforts with Photoshop Elements. Contrast, cropping and adding special effects will also be taught. The classes are affordable at $35. Contact the Oroville Adult Education Career and Technology Center for these classes, and others, by visiting them online.

But, now, back to Berry Creek. On Saturday, August 17th from Noon to 6 p.m. the Sunshine Musical Festival is returning to the Berry Creek Grange at 1477 Bald Rock Road, Berry Creek. Four musical groups: Forgiven, God's Country Band, Victory Song and Lucas Valdez will all be there to entertain. Free food and family time will be abundant. It's a touch of old time religion with Christian-based music.

Speaking of music, did you, or do you love Patsy Cline? The "Sweet Dreams" group, featuring the dynamic vocals of Jolan Dobis and a five-piece band will present Patsy Cline's classic hits at the Kelly Ridge Country Club, 5131 Royal Oaks Drive, Oroville for a Concert on Sunday, August 4th from 4:30 p.m. to 6 p.m. If you want a sneak preview, visit Jolan Dobis Sweet Dreams facebook. Admission is $5. Children 12 and under are free. Bring your lawn chair and blankets.

Now, if that is not enough live music for you, go to the Spirit Lounge at Gold Country Casino and enjoy the country sounds of Northern Traditions on Friday and Saturday night, August 30th and 31st from 8:30 p.m. to 1:30 p.m. Must be twenty-one, and it's FREE!

Ladies, are you looking for something to wear to all of these events? Visit Betty Jean's located downtown at 1920 Bird Street.

Too busy to cook with all these happenings? Just grab some discount, or coupon specials out of The Digger and eat out. Or, visit Little Caesars or Papa Murphy's for year-round enjoyment of an Oroville favorite—pizza!

For the whole family, consider going to the Butte County Fair starting August 22nd through the 25th at the Butte County Fair, 199 E. Hazel St. in Gridley. Carnival rides, animals, bands, destruction derby, kids events, Nor Cal Combat, shows and much more. Visit the Oroville Chamber of Commerce website (www.oroillechamber.net) for more information.

Okay, one more time: post your group's events on the Oroville Chamber of Commerce Events Calendar. It's free, its easy and it should be a priority place to check for what's happening in Oroville, in addition to The Digger. Take the time to share and help us all enjoy our City of Gold.
