Spotlight

by Carol A. Kitchen

Our City of Gold is rich with family and community events celebrating life in and about Oroville. The month of September glitters with opportunities that focus on family, community and friends.

The second Thursday of each month the Lake Oroville Area Garden Club (LOAGC), a broad based community, 501-C3 organization meet. LOAGC offers social and educational opportunities. It can be counted on to be at almost every community event sharing gardening tips, and providing beautification programs for the community. The meeting for September is Thursday, the 12th at 9:30 a.m. and includes tea, coffee, cake and conversation and an educational program. Meetings are held at the Trinity Presbyterian Church Fellowship Hall, 2350 Foothill Blvd, Oroville. For more information, call (530) 589-0346, or visit their internet site.

The Birdcage Theatre has been blossoming and growing for thirty years. "Sabrina Fair," a romantic comedy by Samuel Taylor, opens Thursday, September 20th and runs through Sunday, the 29th. Directed by Ana Pina, it is guaranteed to demand a standing ovation. Curtain: 7:30 p.m. Thurs., Fri., Sat., and 2:00 p.m. Sunday matinees. Admission: $15 general, $7 pre-teen. Group discounts! The theatre is located at 1740 Bird Street, Oroville.

On Saturday, September 14th if you want to strike it rich twice, in one day, start your day in Palermo at the 5th Annual Palermo Community Festival honoring Palermo's 123-year history. The festival includes a parade, car show and festival booths! The parade starts at 11 a.m. Visit The Palermo Council website, or call (530) 534-6565 to get more information. This year's parade theme is "Unity - United We Stand, Divided We Fall!"

Then strike it rich again. From at 4:30 p.m. to 9 p.m. attend the Cowboy Hoedown at Saint Thomas the Apostle School located at 1380 Bird Street, Oroville. The Hoedown includes food, line dancing class, cowboy poetry, Country Music and more for only $10, and $5 for those twelve and under.

A free event that everyone loves is the 19th Annual Salmon Festival on Saturday, September 28th. Starting at 9 a.m. the streets of Oroville between Historic Downtown and the Feather River Fish Hatchery burst with fish-flavored activities during the Salmon Festival. On this weekend, Oroville celebrates the thousands of spawning salmon that yearly make their way from the ocean back up the Feather River. Environmental education, music, Salmon tasting, tours of the hatchery and fun for kids and adults alike make up the "catch of the day."

Part of the Salmon Festival is the Bounty of Butte County, Sunday, September 29th from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. at Sank Park, where the Lott Home is located; 1067 Montgomery Street, Oroville.

The "Bounty" features all things Butte County: food, art, agriculture, music, and a gold mine of fun for the whole family. A line up of local and regional bands reflect the diversity of our community and include Feather River Gypsies, Oroville's favorite Bluegrass and a little Latin. Adults, $15 includes eight tastings, Children 7-12, $5 includes three tastings; and Seniors, 65 up, $5 gets three tastings; accompanied by an adult, children 6 and under free.

If you love music and have an event coming up, there is a one-stop shopping place to find a band, or group, that will meet your needs: Houser's Music! A few of the bands or groups affiliated with Houser's are the Feather River Gypsies; Big D and the Semi-Tones, classic rock and roll; Blind Ambitions, 70's and 80's sounds; Sweet Dreams" with vocalist Jolan Dobis; and Inside Strait,' country and a touch of rock n' roll. If you don't see the band you want, call Brett Johnson at Houser's (530) 533-9336, or stop in and talk to him personally, 1944 Bird Street, Oroville. Brett will help you find you find a group that will meet your personal needs.

There are so many wonderful things we can go to, but what about those who cannot go? Who can't go, you ask? Many seniors who are residents of our local nursing homes such as Olive Ridge, Shadowbrook, and Prestige. Many residents have out lived their family, or have limited or no family living close enough to come and visit them. Too many are alone.

How about introducing yourself to one of the care homes activities director and ask, "What can I do?"

The first time you stop and hold a hand of someone bound to a wheelchair and just listen to them talk, you might get a reward you didn't expect. The first one I got was from an elderly lady, who, as I was saying good-bye, looked up at me with tears in her eyes and said, "Thank you for holding my hand."

This last week I have heard the names of four local Digger advertisers mentioned by different people for their courtesy and/or quality of service. So, here is a 'gold nugget' for each of them: A Penny Candy Store, 1900 Oro Dam Blvd., (530) 534-3739; Pampered Pets Spa and Boutique, 2309 Lincoln, (530) 533-5500; Chapdelaine Construction who has been locally in business for thirty years (530) 589-1183; and Best Self Storage at 3005 Feather River Blvd. Oroville, (530) 403-5101.

If you have a business that prides itself on being one of the best, become part of the best. Advertise in the Digger. We all dig the Digger!

The Digger would like to thank Carol Kitchen for doing the Spot Light for us. She will no longer be writing it and we will all miss her.
